Alan J. De Peters, Partner

Alan De Peters is a partner with the firm, primarily assisting clients in insurance defense, commercial litigation, and personal injury law matters.

With over 10 years of experience, Alan has expertise in a broad range of related practice areas, such as insurance defense and coverage litigation, commercial litigation, personal injury, landlord and tenant law, construction defect litigation, indemnification matters, and cases involving architectural and engineering claims.

Alan is a graduate of Loyola University and the Quinnipiac University School of Law. Since his admission to the New York State Bar in 2008, Alan has been admitted to several jurisdictions throughout New York State, including the Western District of New York, Western District of New York Bankruptcy Court, and Northern District of New York.

An expert on indemnification litigation, Alan has written extensively on issues surrounding indemnification and regularly presented on related matters, including general liability, construction issues, and the New York CPLR.

In addition to his impressive track record in the courtroom, Alan is heavily engaged with numerous organizations throughout the Greater Rochester community. His involvement includes leadership as Liaison to the ADR Committee for Young Lawyers and Chair of the Stand-Alone ADR Committee Program. He is also a member of the Erie County Bar Association, New York State Bar Association, American Bar Association, Defense Research Institute, New York State Insurance Association, Buffalo Niagara Builders Association, Litigation Counsel of America, Construction Exchange of Western New York, Claims Litigation Management, and Defense Trial Lawyers Association of Western New York.

Recognized for his remarkable skill as an attorney and commitment to the Greater Rochester community, Alan is a recipient of multiple Super Lawyer, Rising Star, and Defense Litigation awards.
