Colin R. Bruckel, Partner

Colin Bruckel is a partner with the firm, primarily assisting with issues related to commercial services, commercial real estate, business transactional law, acquisitions and mergers, and business succession planning. Among his many areas of practice, Colin specializes in adeptly assisting clients in the purchase and sale of businesses as well as commercial and residential real estate transactions.

Colin is a cum laude graduate of the State University of New York College at Geneseo and a graduate of the University of Kentucky College of Law, where he served as Production Editor of the Kentucky Law Journal.

Since his admission to the New York State Bar in 2013, Colin has been a member of the Business Law and Real Estate Sections of the Monroe County Bar Association.

In addition to his role as an attorney, Colin is involved in a variety of community organizations throughout the Great Rochester area, including as a member of the Avon Rotary Club. Colin is also a Trustee and the Treasurer of Hope Hall, a not-for-profit school that specializes in providing unique academic opportunities for children who learn differently.
