David R. Coletti, Partner

David Coletti is a partner with Trevett Cristo, P.C., bringing more than 30 years of legal experience and a reputation for being highly client-focused, detail-oriented, and consistently accessible. A Rochester native and Aquinas Institute graduate, David has spent his career providing practical, thoughtful legal guidance across a broad range of practice areas, with a primary focus on matrimonial and family law.

Over the past decade, David's practice has been heavily centered on matrimonial and family law matters, where he is known for his hands-on approach and unwavering dedication to his clients. In addition to family law, his experience spans corporate and business transactions, business sales and acquisitions, wills and estates, real estate matters, criminal law, bankruptcy, LLC formations, and liquor license applications. His diverse background allows him to offer comprehensive counsel to individuals, families, and business owners navigating complex legal issues.

David earned his Bachelors degree from Le Moyne College and his Juris Doctor from the Detroit College of Law (now Michigan State University College of Law). He is admitted to practice in all New York State Courts, the Western District of New York, and the Western District of New York Bankruptcy Court.

Prior to joining Trevett Cristo, David was a partner at Christiano & Coletti from 2008 to 2025, and previously at Christiano, Gallant & Coletti from 2001 to 2008. He began his legal career at the Law Office of Kenneth Gallant, where he practiced for a decade. David is an active member of the Monroe County Bar Association and participates in both the Family Law and Criminal Law Sections.

David joined Trevett Cristo to be part of a collaborative, team-oriented firm that aligns with the work he does and the values he shares. He is excited to contribute his experience to a firm with a long-standing reputation for excellence and to continue providing high-quality, client-centered legal services to the Rochester community.
