

Jessica L. Naclerio, Partner

Jessica Lauren Naclerio is a Partner with Trevett Cristo, P.C., and a member of the firm's criminal defense team. She is known for her tenacious advocacy, strategic courtroom presence, and commitment to ensuring her clients feel heard, respected, and fully supported throughout the legal process.

Jessica represents individuals in both State and Federal Court on a wide range of criminal matters. She conducts jury and bench trials, litigates pretrial hearings, negotiates plea agreements, and handles post-conviction proceedings, including direct appeals. In Federal Court, she has conducted detention hearings and drafted sentencing memoranda. Her practice is grounded in thorough preparation, attention to detail, and a client-centered approach focused on protecting constitutional rights and achieving meaningful outcomes.

Prior to joining Trevett Cristo in 2023, Jessica practiced at The Foti Law Firm, P.C., where she handled criminal defense matters as well as Title IX proceedings and housing litigation. She previously served for seven years as an Assistant Public Defender with the Monroe County Public Defender's Office, representing thousands of clients in felony and misdemeanor cases and gaining extensive trial experience.

In addition to her practice, Jessica is an Adjunct Professor of Trial Practice at Syracuse University College of Law and serves as Adjunct Faculty at St. John Fisher University, where she teaches Law and Forensics. She is actively involved in the Rochester community as a Director of The Center for Youth and Chair of its Governance Committee.

Jessica earned her Juris Doctor from DePaul University College of Law and her Bachelor of Arts, magna cum laude, from Boston University. She is admitted to practice in all New York State Courts and the United States District Court for the Western District of New York.
