

TREVETT CRISTO

ATTORNEYS

Right to the best.

Joseph G. Interlichia, Partner

Joe is a partner with the firm, primarily assisting clients with issues related to residential and commercial real estate.

With over 35 years of the experience, his areas of expertise are in real estate transactions, title insurance, and mortgage settlement services. Joe also supervises the firm's residential real estate and mortgage lending practices.

Joe is a graduate of St. John Fisher College and the University of Dayton Law School. Since his admission to the New York State Bar in 1984, Joe has also been admitted to the Western District of New York and Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of New York.

Joe is also an accomplished writer, with numerous publications such as, The Impact of Federal Legislation on Ohio's Hazardous Waste Disposal Program 7, U. Dayton L. Rev. 567 (1982). Joe's talent as a writer spans back to his days at the University of Dayton Law School, where he was on the Board of Editors for the University of Dayton Law Review.

Joe is a member of the Monroe County Bar Association and has served on the Monroe County Bar Association Real Estate Council. He is also a former member of the Unlawful Practice of Law Committee, former Chairman of Lawyers Referral Service Taskforce, former Chairman, Professional Performance Committee, former member of the Professional Performance Executive Committee and Board of Trustees, and former member of the Board of Directors of the Justinian Order of St. John Fisher College.

In addition to his work with the firm, Joe has been a lifelong member of the Rochester area hockey community, having served as a coach and member of the board of Rochester hockey Youth. He currently works with the Hilton High School Varsity Hockey Team as an assistant coach.