

TREVETT CRISTO

ATTORNEYS

Right to the best.

Steve Beckerman, Partner

Steve Beckerman is a partner with the firm, primarily assisting clients with issues related to family & matrimonial law.

With over 35 years of experience, Steve has managed a myriad of practice areas over the course of his career, including family & matrimonial cases, general litigation, real estate, small business, and trusts & estates issues. Focusing primarily on family & matrimonial law, Steve is accomplished in leading a variety of specialties ranging from complex divorce cases to simple family matters.

Steve is a graduate of Denison University and a graduate of the University of Toledo College of Law. Upon his graduation from law school in 1983, Steve returned to Rochester to join his father's family practice, Beckerman & Beckerman LLP. There, Steve developed a diversified skillset, gaining particular notoriety for practices his family & matrimonial law and trusts & estates.

Additionally, Steve has worked on several high-profile cases, including Majauskas v. Majauskas, 61 N.Y.2d 481 (1984). There, the New York State Court of Appeals determined the formula for determining pension benefits in New York State that remains in effect today.

Following 35 years at Beckerman & Beckerman LLP, Steve joined Trevett Cristo to aggressively expand the firm's family & matrimonial law practice with his impressive background and series of accomplishments.

Steve is also an active member of the Rochester legal community, with memberships in the New York State Bar Association, Monroe County Bar Association, and Association of Collaborative Family Law Attorneys. A native of Brighton, Steve remains deeply committed to representing families in ways that benefit the Greater Rochester area.