Suzanne Cognata, Partner

Suzanne Cognata is a partner with the firm, primarily assisting clients with issues related to family & matrimonial law.

Suzanne has over 25 years of experience, holding a reputation across Western New York for being a compassionate, client-focused, and practical litigator. Suzanne provides legal counsel on all aspects of family law matters, including prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, separation, divorce, custody and visitation, custodial relocation, support of spouses and children, asset and property valuation, and equitable distribution. Suzanne prides herself on providing the highest quality of service to her clients, strategically working with other professionals such as accountants, tax professionals, and therapists to reach the best possible outcome in every case.

Suzanne is a graduate with distinction of the University of Dayton and a graduate of the University of Toledo College of Law. Since her admission to the New York State Bar in 1990, Suzanne has primarily focused her attention and efforts in the Greater Rochester area, currently practicing in Monroe, Ontario, Livingston, Wayne, Yates, and Steuben counties.

In addition to her efforts in the courtroom, Suzanne is an active member of the New York State Bar Association, Monroe County Bar Association, and Ontario County Bar Association.

Committed to bettering the Greater Rochester community, Suzanne also devotes her time to a variety of charities, including through her service as a former member of the Board of Directors and Executive and Governance Committees for the Cure Childhood Cancer Association of Rochester. Suzanne is also a proud supporter of the Make a Wish Foundation, Golisano Children's Hospital, and Willow Domestic Violence Center, taking an active role in a diverse collection of causes to improve our community.
